HUMANITY*

Dr. Stanley Monteith has been studying the movement to create a world government for almost 40 years. During his 35-year career as an orthopedic surgeon he traveled to Europe, lived in South Africa, and researched the records of the men and the organizations that are working to bring our nation under the control of a corporate elite, surrender our national sovereignty, and enslave the people of the world.

ATTENTION PLEASE !

If the reader will spend time perusing the brief notes contained herein an evil and cruel PLAN of conquest will become obvious. The global hierarchy, through such front organizations as the United Nations, intends GENOCIDE, mass murder, against the earth's population! Huge gatherings like the EARTH SUMMIT, supposedly on the environment and "sustainable development", are merely bringing out in action the most dire[disasterous] program this world has ever seen! Read of the real intentions of the "environmental" globalists, look into the plans to control all water and make the citizens of earth pay for even the drops that fall from the sky; read of the unspeakable and crazy restrictions to be placed upon all nations in order to obtain "sustainable development" and "save the earth"; look at details of the Earth Charter and its relationship to the Black Brotherhood of the New World Order. The information has been received from the USA compiled by the Christian investigator and Christian radio personality, Dr Stanley Monteith.

THE PLAN TO DESTROY WESTERN CIVILIZATION

“The survival of civilization in something like its present form might depend significantly on the efforts of a single man.”

The New Yorker magazine. (1)

Who is the man upon whom the survival of civilization rests? In the September 1, 1997 issue of National Review magazine, we are told that:

“A small cadre of obscure international bureaucrats are hard at work devising a system of “global governance” that is slowly gaining control over ordinary Americans’ lives. Maurice Strong, a 68-year-old Canadian, is the “indispensable man” at the center of this creeping UN power grab.” (2)

Who is Maurice Strong, and why is he considered “the indispensable man at the center of the UN power grab”? He is a leader of the secret world of corporate finance, and is currently the primary force behind the UN plan to establish a world government. He left his home in Canada at the age of fourteen without finishing high school, yet by the time he was nineteen he was working as an analyst for a well-known Toronto investment firm. In his twenties, he became an executive officer of several Canadian oil companies, including Dome Petroleum. (3) By the time he was thirty-one he was president of a prominent Canadian investment firm, and at the age of forty-three presided over one of the most important International Conferences ever convened, The First World Conference on the Environment, held in Stockholm in 1972. That meeting is referred to today as the first Earth Summit. Twenty years later Maurice Strong presided over the second Earth Summit held in Rio de Janeiro in 1992, and in 1997 he presided over Earth Summit Plus 5. (4) How did a poor Canadian boy with little education ever rise to such a position of world power and prominence? The answer to that question will become obvious as our story progresses.

Maurice Strong has been quoted as saying:

“If we don’t change, our species will not survive ... Frankly, we may get to the point where the only way of saving the world will be for industrial civilization to collapse. “ (5)

Maurice Strong is presently a Senior Advisor to both James Wolfensohn, the President of the World Bank, and Kofi Annan, the Secretary General of the United Nations. In addition, he is the Chairman of both the Earth Council and the World Resources Institute, a Co-Chairman of the Council of The World Economic Forum, and a member of Toyota's International Advisory Board. He has served as President of the World Federation of the United Nations Associations, as a member of the Club of Rome, as a trustee of the Aspen Institute, as director of the World Future Society, and as a director of finance of the Lindisfarne Association. He was a founding endorser of Planetary Citizens, convened the Fourth World Wilderness Congress, and served as a trustee of the Rockefeller Foundation from 1971 to 1978. (6)

Of even more significance is his work with the International Union for the Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources (IUCN), and with the United Nations Environment Programme (IUNEP), which published the global Biodiversity Assessment report summarized in Document VI.

As Chairman of the Earth Council, Maurice Strong co-authored The Earth Charter with Mikhail Gorbachev and Professor Stephen Rockefeller. That Charter is reproduced in Document VII, and its significance explained. In addition, he was Co-Chairman of the Commission on Global Governance which published Our Global Neighborhood which reveals the United Nations plan for world governance which is simply a code name for world government. (7)

Maurice Strong is not just a multimillionaire he is also one of the most powerful men in the modern world. How has he accumulated such great wealth and stature? He has been involved with spiritualism and the occult, and those who embrace the Darkness are often rewarded with both riches and power.

In their book The Greening, Larry Abraham and Franklin Sanders describe Maurice Strong's 200,000-acre ranch in Colorado:

“Strong owns a large tract of land in Colorado which they call ‘the Baca.’ There Strong and his wife are establishing an international community of spiritualists, "complete with monasteries, devotees of the Vedic mother goddess, amulet-carrying native American shamans, Zen Buddhists, and even Shirley MacLaine. " ... They are not only promoting a one-world government ... they are also supporting a one-world religion to substitute for Christianity." (8)

It is important to note that Maurice Strong and his wife are not only involved with the occult, but they are also supporting a "one-world religion to substitute for Christianity". They intend to preside over the destruction of Christianity. One of the greatest tragedies of modern time is that most Christian leaders do not understand that the current move to remove prayer from public schools, to destroy the moral fabric of our society, and to maintain the legality of partial-birth abortion has primarily come from those dedicated to spiritualism and the occult.

In 1990 Daniel Wood had an opportunity to interview Maurice Strong. He subsequently wrote an article based upon his encounter entitled Honest, I am NOT making any of this up. That article was published in West magazine in May 1990. According to Daniel Wood, Maurice Strong:

"presented the idea that the only way to save the planet from destruction is to see to it that the industrialized civilizations collapse." (9)

In his article Daniel Wood revealed that Maurice Strong had told him that he was thinking of writing a novel about the growing threat to earth's survival from industrialized nations.

"What if a small group of ... world leaders were to conclude that the principal risk to the earth comes from the actions of the rich countries? And if the world is to survive, those rich countries would have to sign an agreement reducing their impact on the environment Will they do it?"... The group's conclusion is 'no' .. so, in order to save the planet, the group decides: isn't the only hope for the planet that the industrialized civilizations collapse. Isn't it our responsibility to bring that about?" (10)

Maurice Strong then went on to further describe his fictional plot

"This group of world leaders ... form a secret society to bring about an economic collapse ..."
(11)

One has only to read Maurice Strong's The Earth Charter in Document VII; to see its occultic overtones. When you reread The Earth Charter look for its refer-ence to

- (1) Nature and the environmental
- (2) Reproduction and population
- (3) Governance and
- (4) Spirituality and "the infinite".

Then re-read the 10 Guides engraved on the Georgia Guidestones and note the similarity between the philosophy espoused in the two documents.

Next re-read the summary of Global Biodiversity Assessment [see p. 7. this booklet] contained in Document VI. That report resulted from decisions arrived at during the second Earth Summit over which Maurice Strong presided. It is a plan for the destruction of Western civilization, and that plan is being implemented via Executive Orders and bureaucratic edicts today.

Maurice Strong, and the occultic force he represents, intends to establish a world government, enslave all mankind, and destroy Judeo-Christian civilization. Mr. Strong admits that he is a dedicated socialist, he believes in authoritarian rule of the masses. (12)

Now is the time for all those who value freedom and love Jesus Christ to join together in a concerted effort to educate our political and Christian leaders as to the Luciferian nature of the struggle in which we are currently involved. If the followers of Christ would simply stand together, the forces of Darkness would flee like vampires at the first rays of dawn.

Always remember the opening words of this article:

"The survival of civilization in something like its present form might depend significantly on the efforts of a single man."

The New Yorker magazine
"A small cadre of obscure international bureaucrats are hard at work devising a system of "global governance" that is slowly gaining control over ordinary Americans' lives. Maurice Strong, a 68-year-old Canadian, is the "indispensable man" at the center of this creeping UN power grab.”

National Review magazine

Now is the time for men and women of integrity to commit themselves to this epic struggle for the survival of Christian civilization, for God's enemies are well on their way to destroying that civilization.

THE GLOBAL BIODIVERSITY ASSESSMENT REPORT

Global Biodiversity Assessment is an 1140-page document published by the Cambridge University Press under the auspices of the United Nations Environment Programme, (UNEP). According to its cover page it is:

“an independent, peer-reviewed analysis of the biological and social aspects of biodiversity.”

The programs outlined in the report are designed to destroy Western civilization under the guise of preserving the environment.

We have already seen how the environmental movement has shut down the lumber industry in California, decimated the fishing industry in the West, outlawed DDT which has led to a return of malaria, outlawed the use of Freon, blocked development of nuclear power, and imposed draconian air-quality regulations on both the public and private sectors. In addition, the radical left has undermined the private practice of medicine, and destroyed the American educational system to the point where there are now over 90 million illiterates in the United States.

The Occult Hierarchy which controls both the radical left and the environmental movement now intend to destroy American agriculture, take away our automobiles, further restrict private property rights, deindustrialize America, and destroy Christianity. If my allegations seem too far-fetched to believe, I suggest that you read the summary of the Global Biodiversity Assessment report contained in this Document, that you get a copy of the Santa Cruz County Agenda 21 Reporter and if you are still not convinced, get a complete copy of the Global Biodiversity Assessment report and read it in its entirety

 Contained on the following page is a glossary of the items deemed to be nonsustainable, and detrimental to Global Biodiversity. They include the grazing of livestock, fencing of pastures, modern farm production, logging, fossil fuels, etc. The coming destruction of modern methods of agricultural production will lead to massive starvation. Tragically, that is exactly what is intended as you will learn as you read this Document. Global Biodiversity Assessment is a plan to control every human toeing who survives the coming world-wide genocide.

THE POPULATION CONTROL AGENDA

Stanley K. Monteith, M.D.

One of the most difficult concepts for Americans to accept is that there are human beings dedicated to conceive population control and genocide. Many readers will acknowledge that our government is helping to finance the Red Chinese program of forced abortion, forced sterilization, infanticide, and control of the numbers of live births.

Most readers will accept the fact that our nation is helping to finance the United Nations' world-wide "family planning program" a form of population control. Most rational men and women, however, find it impossible to believe that such programs are really part of a "master plan" to kill off large segments of the world's population.

I shall have to admit that I studied the politics AIDS (HIV disease) for over a decade before I finally came to a horrifying conclusion. The real motivation behind efforts to block utilization of standard public health measures to control further spread of the HIV epidemic was "population control." That was not an easy concept for me to acknowledge, despite the fact that I had long recognized that the twentieth century has been the bloodiest hundred-year period in recorded human history.

It was not until I journeyed to Elberton, Georgia, stood within the dark, shadows of the great Druid-like monument built there, and read the words engraved on the massive stone pillars of that structure that I finally came to accept the truth. At that point it became obvious that just as our Lord has given mankind Ten Commandments to guide our lives, so, too, those from "the dark side" have been given their instructions from the "one" they worship. The ten programs of the "guides" are inscribed in eight different languages on the four great granite pillars of the American Stonehenge. That message foretells a terrifying future for humanity, and explains why efforts to approach the AIDS epidemic from a logical point of view have been consistently thwarted. 1

Before you scoff, and reject my suggestion as some sort of madness, check out my references, then try to disprove my conclusions. If my allegations are unfounded, you will soon recognize the deception and return to your daily activities, certain that there is no cause for concern. On the other hand, should you determine that my assessment is correct, or even partially correct, then you have a moral obligation to decide just what part you intend to play in response to the unfolding world genocide - how you will protect yourself, your loved ones and the countless millions of helpless human beings throughout the world who have been marked for destruction.

You must never forget the warning recorded for posterity by Martin Niemoeller, the Lutheran minister who lived in Hitler's Germany during the 1930's and 1940's. His words echo down to us over succeeding decades: "In Germany they came first for the Communists, and I didn't speak up because I wasn't a Communist. Then they came for the Jews, and I didn't speak up because I wasn't a Jew. Then they came for the trade unionists, and I didn't speak up be- cause I wasn't a trade unionist. Then they came for the Catholics, and I didn't speak up because I was a Protestant. Then they came for me, and by that time no one was left to speak up" 2

You will note that Reverend Niemoeller warned that after coming for the Jews the Nazis came for both Catholics and Protestants.

Why is that fact never mentioned?

The question that I am most frequently asked is,

"How can you possibly believe that there are people who intend to kill off large segments of the world's population?"

My answer is really quite simple. I hold that belief because I have read their writings. I believe they are telling the truth. Just as Adolph Hitler wrote of his plans for Europe in "Mein Kampf" (My Plan), so, too, those who intend to depopulate large segments of the earth have written of the necessity of limiting the world's population. They fully intend to "exterminate" a significant portion of the world's population. The fact that the vast majority of Americans have never heard of their intent, of The Georgia Guidestones in Elberton, or of "The Plan" and "The Hierarchy" attests to the degree of control that exists over what the American people have been allowed to know about the occultic forces which are working within our society today.

Margaret Sanger and Planned Parenthood

As you read on you will soon discover that I have primarily relied on material which can be readily found in books, audio-taped interviews, and public new sources. If you take the time to check my references, you will soon discover that there really are those who have publicly advocated the elimination of "human weeds" and "the cleansing of society." Indeed, to this very day your tax money is used to finance Planned Parenthood, an organization founded by Margaret Sanger. During the 1930's Margaret Sanger openly supported the Nazi plan for genetic engineering of the German population, and the propagation of a "super race."

In Planned Parenthood's 1985 "Annual Report" leaders of that organization proclaimed that they were, "Proud of our past, and planning for our future." 3

How could anyone possibly claim to be proud of the organization founded by Margaret Sanger when history records that she wrote of the necessity of: "the extermination of 'human weeds'... the 'cessation of charity'... the segregation of 'morons, misfits, and the maladjusted,' and ... the sterilization of 'genetically inferior races.'" 4

Margaret Sanger published "The Birth Control Review," in that magazine she openly supported the "infanticide program" promoted by Nazi Germany in the 1930's, and publicly championed Adolph Hitler's goal of Aryan white supremacy. In the years prior to World War II Margaret Sanger commissioned Ernst Rudin, a member of the Nazi Party, and director of the dreaded German Medical Experimentation Programs, to serve as an advisor to her organization. In his excellent book "Killer Angel," George Grant chronicles the life and writing of Margaret Sanger, and painstakingly documents Sanger's plans for the genetic engineering of the human race. George Grant noted that in the 1920's Margaret Sanger wrote

"The Pivot of Civilization" in which she called for:

"The elimination of 'human weeds' for the 'cessation of charity' because it prolonged the lives of the unfit, for the segregation of 'morons, misfits and the maladjusted,' and for the sterilization of genetically inferior races" 5

According to George Grant, Margaret Sanger believed that the unfit should not be allowed to reproduce. Accordingly, she opened a birth control clinic in:

"The Brownsville section of New York, an area populated by newly immigrated Slavs, Latins, Italians and Jews. She targeted the 'unfit' for her crusade to 'save the planet.'" 6

Nineteen years later, in 1939, Margaret Sanger organized her "Negro project." A program designed to eliminate members of what she believed to be an "inferior race." Margaret Sanger justified her proposal because she believed that:

"The masses of Negroes ... particularly in the South, still breed carelessly and disastrously, with the result that the increase among Negroes, even more than among whites, is from that portion of the population least intelligent and fit ..."7

Margaret Sanger then went on to reveal that she intended to hire three of four Colored Ministers "to travel to various black enclaves to propagandize for birth control." she wrote:

"The most successful educational approach to the Negro is through a religious appeal. We do not want word to go out that we want to exterminate the Negro population, and the Minister is the man who can straighten out that idea if it ever occurs to any of their more rebellious members." 8

As Margaret Sanger's organization grew in power, influence, and acceptance, she began to write of the necessity of targeting religious groups for destruction as well, believing that the "dysgenic races" should include "Fundamentalists and Catholics" in addition to "blacks, Hispanics, (and) American Indians," 9

As the years went by, Margaret Sanger became increasingly obsessed with her occultic beliefs. Along with her acceptance of the occult, she became increasingly hostile to both Christianity and the American precepts of individual freedom under God. Her distaste for America can be seen in her writings when she wrote that:

"Birth control appeals to the advanced radical because it is calculated to undermine the authority of the Christian churches. I look forward to seeing humanity free someday of the tyranny of Christianity no less than Capitalism." 10

Margaret Sanger eventually embraced not only communism but theosophy as well.

What is theosophy?

"It is a covert, occultic religion based upon the repudiation of God and the worship of Lucifer, In modern-day America, theosophy is one of the most powerful hidden (occult) forces working behind the scenes in New York City, Washington D.C., and across our nation today." 11

How many times have you been told that Adolph Hitler killed six million Jews in the Holocaust? "Warrant for Genocide." Professor Cohn chronicled the dark days of World War II, noting: "Only about a third of the civilians killed by the Nazis and their accomplices were Jews ... Other peoples were marked out for decimation, subjugation, and enslavement, and the civilian losses of some of these (countries - Ed.) amounted to 11 per cent to 12 per cent of the total population. 12

If Professor Cohn's figures are accurate - and I feel certain that they are, because other Jewish researchers have come up with similar figures - then why haven't the Christians of America been allowed to learn the fact that in addition to the 6 million Jews murdered by the Nazis, somewhere between 7 and 12 million non-Jews were also ruthlessly liquidated in Hitler's Germany?

I believe this information has been intentionally suppressed because those who were killed were largely Christians, and the covert forces which control the reality of the American public today do not want the followers of Jesus Christ in our nation to awaken to their peril ... until it is far too late. Hitler hated not only Jews and Judaism, he also hated Christians and Christianity as well.

Why was that?

Because Adolph Hitler, just like Margaret Sanger was a disciple of theosophy and of Madame Blavatsky, the founder of a religion that worshipped Lucifer. Accordingly, both Margaret Sanger and Adolph Hitler were energized by the same "dark, spiritual forces." The fact that most of our citizens have never heard of Madame Blavatsky, theosophy, or that two of theosophy's most ardent disciples were Adolph Hitler and Margaret Sanger clearly reflects the degree of control that exists over what the American people have been allowed to learn about the occultic forces at work in our nation today.

As a researcher on the subject of the occult, I regularly receive letters and publications from the Lucis Trust. The Lucis Trust of today is the modern-day extension of the "Lucifer Publishing Company," an organization founded by Alice Bailey during the early years of the twentieth century. Alice Bailey was a disciple of Madame Blavatsky and the nominal leader of the Theosophical Society between the early 1900's and the late 1920's. Because the name "Lucifer" had such a bad connotation in those days, Alice Bailey changed the name of her organization from "The Lucifer Publishing Company" to "The Lucis Trust." The nature and beliefs of her organization, however, have always remained the same.

The Lucis Trust of today is one of the major front groups through which theosophy works to influence life here in America. The supernatural powers that still energize The Lucis Trust today certainly come from the same dark, spiritual forces that energized Madame Blavatsky, Adolph Hitler and Margaret Sanger in generations past.

Publications from The Lucis Trust regularly refer to "The Plan" for humanity that has been established by "The Hierarchy." Part of that plan is inscribed on the granite pillars of the American Stonehenge in Elberton, Georgia ... "The Georgia Guidestones." 13

A full discussion on the subjects of population control and occultism is far beyond the scope of this short monograph. Full documentation on these subjects will be found in my soon-to-be-published book, "None Dare Call It Genocide." At this point let me simply offer a few examples of the view expressed by those who publicly advocate population reduction and / or genocide.

David Graver, a research biologist with the National Park Service, was quoted in the Los Angeles Times Book Review Section, October 22, 1989, as saying: “Human happiness and certainly human fecundity are not as important as a wild and healthy planet. I know social scientists who remind me that people are part of nature, but it isn’t true ... We have become a plague upon ourselves and upon the Earth ... Until such time as homo sapiens should decide to rejoin nature, some of us can only hope for the right virus to come along” 14

Michael Fox, when he was the vice-president of The Humane Society of the United States wrote:

“Mankind is the most dangerous, destructive, selfish and unethical animal on the earth.” 15

In “The First Global Revolution,” published by The Council of the Club of Rome, an international elitist organization, the authors note that:

“In searching for a new enemy to unite us, we came up with the idea that pollution, the threat of global warming, water shortages famine, and the like would fit the bill. All these dangers are caused by human intervention ... The real enemy, then is humanity itself.” 16

The Los Angeles Times of April 5, 1994 quoted Cornell University Professor David Pimentel, speaking before the American Association for the Advancement of Science, as saying that, “The total world population should be no more than 2 billion rather than the current 5.6 billion.”

In the UNESCO Courier of November 1991, Jacques Cousteau wrote: “The damage people cause to the planet is a function of demographics - it is equal to the degree of development. One American, burdens the earth much more than twenty Bangladeshes- This is as terrible thing to say. In order to stabilize world population, we must eliminate 350,000 people per day. It is a horrible thing to say, but it’s just as bad not to say it.” 17

Bertrand Russell, in his book, “The Impact of Science on Society,” wrote,

“At present the population of the world is increasing War so far has had no great effect on this increase ... I do not pretend that birth control is the only way in which population can be kept from increasing. There are others ... If a Black Death could be spread throughout the world once in every generation, survivors could procreate freely without making the world too full ... the state of affairs might be somewhat unpleasant, but what of it? Really high-minded people are indifferent to suffering, especially that of others.” 18

Negative Population Growth Inc. of Teaneck, New Jersey recently circulated a letter stating their long-range goal.

“We believe that our goal for the United States should be no more than 150 million, our size in 1950. For the world, we believe our goal should be a population of not more than two billion, its size shortly after the turn of the century.”19

In the Global Assessment Report of UNEP (a United Nations sponsored study group), Phase One Draft, Section 9, the authors quoted an expert who suggested that:

“A reasonable estimate for an industrialized world society at the present North American material standard of living would be 1 billion. At the more frugal European standard of living, 2 to 3 billion would be possible.”20

More New Age Influence

Speaking at a round-table discussion group at the Gorbachev Conference held in San Francisco in the fall of 1996, Dr. Sam Keen, a New Age writer and philosopher stated that there was strong agreement that religious institutions have to take a primary responsibility for the population explosion. He went on to say that,

"We must speak far more clearly about sexuality, contraception, about abortion, about values that control the population, because the ecological crisis, in short, is the population crisis. Cut the population by 90% and there aren't enough people left to do a great deal of ecological damage."

Mr. Keen's remarks were met with applause from the assembled audience made up largely of New Age adherents, Socialists, Internationalists and occultists. Many of the leading occultists of our modern world attended that meeting in San Francisco, a meeting organized by Mikhail Gorbachev, former Director of the Soviet KGB, and later President of Russia. 21

What is the message found on The Georgia Guidestones? What is the plan of the "guides"?

If you read occultic literature, you will soon find that those who worship Lucifer today refer to a "Hierarchy" that guides both their actions and the affairs of the world.

Who are the "Hierarchy"?

The Lucis Trust, formerly The Lucifer Publishing Company, recently sent a letter to their supporter stating.

"The spiritual Hierarchy makes definite use of the twelve spiritual Festival periods. We can learn to cooperate with the members of the Hierarchy as they work to bring the divine Plan to the attention of men and women of goodwill and spiritual aspiration everywhere throughout the world. The idea of spiritual approach - of Hierarchy to humanity and humanity to Hierarchy - is the primary principle underlying meditation ... understanding of how the spiritual energies which flow through each Zodiacal sign can illumine and inspire right human relations." 22

The ancient Druids were members of an occultic religion; the circle of monuments at Stonehenge in England is occultic; and the message engraved on the American Stonehenge in Elberton is occultic. Yoko Ono is the widow of John Lennon, a man who was deeply involved in the occult. Yoko Ono has written a musical score with three movements dedicated to the message of The Georgia Guidestones. She was recently quoted as saying,

"I want people to know about the stones ... We're headed toward a world where we might blow ourselves up and maybe the globe will not exist ... it's a nice time to reaffirm ourselves, knowing all the beautiful things that are in this country, and The Georgia Stones symbolize that."23

What is the message to modern-day man which is engraved on the great stone pillars of the Druid-like monument in Elberton? The first of the "guides" reads:

"Maintain humanity under 500,000,000 in perpetual balance with nature. (This-Ed.) Means the entire human race at its climax level for permanent balance with nature."

The Infamous Tuskegee Study

In recent history, we have seen the influence of occultic population control advocates here in America. Nowhere is that influence better demonstrated than in the Tuskegee Study, a scientific research program in which 400 syphilis-infected black men were recruited by the U.S. Public Health Service back in 1932. The participants were all told that they would be treated for their infections, but instead of treating their illness, all medicines were withheld. The black men were then actively prevented from obtaining treatment elsewhere as their bodies, and the bodies of their wives and children, were systematically ravaged by disease.

The evil men who conceived that Nazi-style study justified their atrocity by alleging that scientists needed to learn how untreated syphilis progressed in the human body. For a period of forty years, between 1932 and 1972, the genocidal Tuskegee Study continued. It was not until 1972, when one newspaper finally had the courage to break the story to the public, that the Tuskegee Study was finally terminated. By that time, only 125 of the original 400 black men had survived.

To this very day, 24 years after the end of that grotesque human experiment, none of the perpetrators of that atrocity have ever been either accused or indicted for their crimes. Back in 1932, when the Tuskegee Study began, Margaret Sanger's ideas had already begun to infect the minds and souls of physicians and scientists here in America. According to Margaret Sanger's sense of morality, experiments on "human weeds" were fully justified in the name of "science."

Do you honestly believe for one moment that such an experiment would have been tolerated here in America had the participants been white men? 24

Another far more effective method of reducing the world population was devised in the 1900's by a group of environmentalists and population-control adherents. They set out to block the use of DDT for mosquito and malaria control after it had been found that the insecticide was extremely effective in saving human lives.

Alexander King, president of the Club of Rome wrote,

"My own doubts came when DDT was introduced, in Guyana, within two years, it had almost eliminated malaria. So my chief quarrel with DDT, in hindsight, is that it has greatly added to the population problem." 25

In 1970 The National Academy of Sciences, in their book "Life Sciences," stated that,

"In little more than two decades DDT has prevented 500 million deaths due to malaria."

To population-control advocates, this irresponsible preservation of human life was unconscionable, so they set out to outlaw further use of the pesticide. Up until 1970 all reliable scientific data had consistently demonstrated that DDT was completely safe for both humans and animals. Indeed, DDT was the safest pesticide ever known to mankind. Furthermore, it was inexpensive and could be widely used in third-world countries to control the spread of insect-borne diseases. Accordingly, population-control adherents set out to have DDT banned in the name of saving the environment. You probably read the contrived stories alleging that DDT caused softening of eggshells, interfered with the balance of nature, and endangered humanity by entering into the food chain. In truth, all of those stories were fabricated, and were simply part of a carefully coordinated program to block further use of the life-saving pesticide. If you are interested in learning the truth concerning the deceitful campaign waged against DDT, I suggest that you order a copy of my audio-taped interviews with Dr. J. Gordon Edwards.

Dr. Edwards is a world-renowned biologist who led the fight in the 1960's to counter the propaganda program waged by environmentalists and population-control advocates to ban further use of DDT. You can also order a copy of Dr. Edward's excellent monograph, "Remembering Silent Spring and its Consequences."

William Ruckelshaus was a long-time member of the Environmental Defense Fund, and the Director of the EPA. He outlawed further use of DDT in 1972 despite the recommendation of the chairman of the EPA investigating committee which had heard six months of testimony on use of the pesticide, and had determined that DDT was completely safe. When Ruckelshaus outlawed further use of DDT, he signed the death warrant for hundreds of millions of helpless human beings living in third-world countries. To those energized by the dark side, however, the loss of hundreds of millions of human lives was relatively inconsequential.

In his excellent monograph, "Remembering Silent Spring and its Consequences," Professor J. Gordon Edwards quoted from a speech delivered by Victor Yanconne, founder of the Environmental Defense Fund. In that talk, Mr. Yanconne related a story told to him by a reporter who had asked Dr. Charles Wurster, one of the major opponents of DDT, whether a ban on DDT wouldn't actually result in far greater use of much more toxic pesticides.

Dr. Wurster is reported to have replied: "So what? People are the cause of all the problems. We have too many of them. We need to get rid of some of them and this is as good a way as any."

~~When asked by the same reporter,~~ "Doctor, how do you square the killing of people with the mere loss of some birds?"

~~Dr. Wurster is reported to have~~ replied, "It doesn't really make a lot of difference, because organo phosphate acts locally and only kills farm workers and most of them are Mexicans and Negroes." 26

How many people have died in the past 25 years since the use of DDT was outlawed?

If the National Academy of Sciences was correct in their 1970 assessment that 500 million lives had been saved by DDT over a twenty-year period, then we have probably lost well over 600 million human lives during the past twenty-five years since advocates of population control succeeded in outlawing DDT.' 27

The Relationship Between Abortion, Breast Carcinoma, and Population Control

Let me offer another example of a population control program which is being promoted here in the United States today. Many physicians have expressed their concern about the dramatic increase in breast carcinoma seen in women in recent years.

Despite the fact that 18 scientific studies published in both domestic and foreign medical journals have clearly demonstrated the direct causal relationship between first-trimester abortion and breast cancer, all efforts to disseminate that information here in the United States have been consistently blocked by those who favor abortion and population control.

In the fall of 1996 a new scientific paper dealing with a meta-analysis of 23 different scientific studies on the relationship between first-trimester abortion and breast cancer was published in a British medical journal.

That study clearly demonstrated a higher incidence of breast cancer in women who had had first-trimester abortions. In response to that publication, the American Medical Association (AMA), the American Cancer Society (ACS), and pro-abortion / population-control advocates joined together in an unholy alliance to attack the conclusions of the authors, and to block all efforts to disseminate that information to American Physicians. All of the organization mentioned above continue to oppose efforts to have physicians warn women of the risk they face when they submit themselves to first-trimester abortions. Before carrying out all surgical procedures in America "advised consent" is required, except for abortion.

The AMA, the ACS, and the pro-death lobby continue to insist that women must not be advised of the risk they incur when they destroy the life of their unborn child. Why is there such inconsistency? Current abortion policies in America are absolutely necessary to reduce our population. That is why a minor child can be taken from school to an abortion clinic without parental notification, yet that same child cannot be given an aspirin without parental consent. It all has to do with population control. 28

Population Control in Russia Today

Another dramatic example of population control is the tragedy being played out in the "former" Soviet Union today in regard to male longevity. In Russia, the life span of the average Russian male has dropped precipitously over the past several decades. The average life expectancy of an American male is 74-78 years of age, and in Japan the average life span is 78 years, but the average life span of Russian men has fallen from 68 years in the 1970's to 63.8 years in 1985 to 57.7 years in 1994. It is estimated that, if current trends continue, the average life span of a Russian male will be 53 years shortly after the turn of the century. Do you really believe that this shocking reduction in life span is happening simply by "accident"? The true cause of this dramatic reduction in life span in Russia will be detailed in my coming book, "None Dare Call It Genocide." 29

The Massacres in Africa

One has only to learn what really happened to the Christians in Rwanda between April and July of 1994 to imagine what may lie in store for Christians here in America at some time in the not-too-distant future.

After the Christian Tutsis had been disarmed by governmental decree in the early 1990's, Hutu-led military forces began to systematically massacre the defenseless Christians. The massacre began in April 1994 and continued until July 1994. Using machetes rather than bullets, the Hutu forces were able to create a state of abject fear and terror within the helpless Christian population as they systematically butchered hundreds of thousands of them. The United Nations immediately convened hearings on the genocide taking place in Rwanda, but Madeline Albright, the American Ambassador to the United Nations argued strenuously that neighboring African nations should not be allowed to intervene until the "civil war had come to an end." In reality, of course, there was no civil war since those being slaughtered had no weapons with which to defend themselves; it was simply a matter of mass murder.

In addition to blocking intervention by neighboring nation, Madeline Albright also insisted that the word "genocide" must not be used, and that the United Nations forces stationed in Rwanda were not to be allowed to intervene. In the three months that followed, between one-half and three-quarters of a million Christians were systematically dismembered, hacked to death, and slaughtered in the bloody carnage that ensued. Tens of thousands of Christians were murdered in their churches; tens of thousands more were murdered in their hospitals and in their schools. On several occasion, United Nations soldiers stationed in Rwanda actually handed over helpless Christians under their protection to members of the Hutu militia. They then stood by as their screaming charges were unceremoniously hacked to pieces.

At the end of the carnage, in late July 1994, the American government rewarded the Hutu murderers with millions of dollars in foreign aid. Strangely, the American press has remained silent about the fact that almost all of those who were slaughtered were Christians, and it was the policies of our government that were primarily responsible for blocking efforts by neighboring African countries to intervene." 30

There are literally dozens of other examples of population-control programs which have been implemented throughout our world by modern-day "Malthusians" in their effort to ensure that the world population is dramatically curtailed. To date it is estimated that far more than one billion human lives have been terminated as a result of the world-wide abortion programs financed by the United States. In addition, we are beginning to see the devastating effects of the AIDS epidemic as this modern-day plague begins to depopulate large areas of both Asia and Africa. Because of the influence of occultic population controllers, however, all logical efforts to address the HIV epidemic throughout the world continue to be blocked. Rather than utilizing the proven public health methods used with all other illnesses, advocates of population control continue to promote both hedonistic sex education and condom distribution.

In the May 1996 issue of "Special Warfare," a publication of the John F. Kennedy Special Warfare Center and School, it was noted that:

"The immediate future may present other daunting challenges to Civil Affairs units. Because of complicated social and cultural reasons, AIDS already infects a high proportion of the military and civilian officials of Zaire, Uganda, Kenya, Zambia, and other central Africa countries. In some or all of these countries, government establishments may collapse in the next 10-15 yrs. If this pattern is repeated in other areas where AIDS is spreading at an alarming rate, then civil rule may also erode or breakdown in parts of North Africa, the Middle East, India, and Southeast Asia." 31

Let me assure you that there really are hundreds of thousands of occulty energized people throughout the world today who honestly believe that human compassion is outmoded, and that the inferior peoples of the world must either be allowed to die or be actively exterminated. I will conclude this monograph by quoting from the writings of the English Churchman, Thomas Robert Malthus (1766-1834), In his "An Essay on the Principle of Population," Malthus wrote:

"All children born, beyond what would be required to keep up the population to a desired level, must necessarily perish, unless room may be made for them by the deaths of grown persons ... Therefore... we should facilitate, instead of foolishly and vainly endeavoring to impede, the operations of nature in producing this mortality." 32

I personally believe that God expects each and every one of us to become involved in the affairs of this world until He returns. Furthermore, I believe that all human life is sacred. We are told that Christians are to be the "salt and light of the world.," the preservative that keeps humanity from rotting.

What is the Christian Church doing today to preserve the lives of the inhabitants of God's earth, what are you doing to protect the lives of those who have been targeted by the forces of darkness?

Today, the AIDS epidemic is beginning to depopulate both Africa and the non-Communist countries of Asia?

What can you do?

1) Order my taped interview with Peter Hammond which tells the story of the murder of the Christian population of Rwanda.

2) Order my four-tape set on Population Control which includes information on The Georgia Guidestones and the plan of the "guides." You have my permission to copy and distribute my audio tapes and this monograph, in order to disseminate this information as far and wide as possible.

3) Get involved in local political organizations. Speak out on these matters on talk-radio, in your church, and to your friends. The life you save could well be that of a loved one... a friend... or your own. .

4) Finally, pray that our Lord will intervene, and that our nation can be returned to Godly leadership.

DESPATCH:

Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers to save the earth etc. this is not scriptural; our commission is evangelism not social justice etc. "The Need is not the Call". Pray and seek God's direction in all that you do or not do..."and He will direct your path".

Always remember the words of St. Paul from Ephesians 6: 11,12.

"For we struggle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the forces of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places."

Despatch has some audio tapes and material on hand from Monteith.

On one of the highest hilltops in Elberton County Georgia stands a huge granite monument engraved in eight different languages on the four giant stones that support the common capstone are 10 Guides, or commandments. That monument is alternately referred to as The Georgia Guidestones, or the American Stonehenge. Though relatively unknown to most people, it is an important link to the Occult Hierarchy that dominates the world in which we live.

The origin of that strange monument is shrouded in mystery because no one knows the true identity of the man, or men, who commissioned its construction. All that is known for certain is that in June 1979, a well-dressed, articulate stranger visited the office of the Elberton Granite Finishing Company and announced that he wanted to build an edifice to transmit a message to mankind. He identified himself as R. C. Christian, but it soon became apparent that was not his real name. He said that he represented a group of men who wanted to offer direction to humanity, but to date, almost two decades later, no one knows who R. C. Christian really was, or the names of those he represented.

Several things are apparent. The messages engraved on the Georgia Guidestones deal with four major fields:

- (1) Governance and the establishment of a world government,
- (2) Population and reproduction control,
- (3) The environment and man's relationship to nature, and
- (4) Spirituality.

In the public library in Elberton, I found a book written by the man who called himself Christian. I discovered that the monument he commissioned had been erected in recognition of Thomas Paine and the occult philosophy he espoused. Indeed, the Georgia Guidestones are used for occult ceremonies and mystic celebrations to this very day. Tragically, only one religious leader in the area had the courage to speak out against the American Stonehenge, and he has recently relocated his ministry.

THE MESSAGE OF THE GEORGIA GUIDESTONES

1. Maintain humanity under 500,000,000 in perpetual balance with nature.
2. Guide reproduction wisely - improving fitness and diversity.
3. Unite humanity with a living new language.
4. Rule passion - faith - tradition - and all things with tempered reason.
5. Protect people and nations with fair laws and just courts.
6. Let all nations rule internally resolving external disputes in a world court

7. Avoid petty laws and useless officials.

8. Balance personal rights with social duties.

9. Prize truth - beauty - love - seeking harmony with the infinite.

10. Be not a cancer on the earth - Leave room for nature.

Limiting the population of the earth to 500 million will require the extermination of nine-tenths of the world's people. The American Stonehenge's reference to establishing a world court foreshadows the current move to create an International Criminal Court and a world government. The Guidestones' emphasis on preserving nature anticipates the environmental movement of the 1990s, and the reference to "seeking harmony with the infinite" reflects the current effort to replace Judeo-Christian beliefs with a new spirituality.

The message of the American Stonehenge also foreshadowed the current drive for Sustainable Development. Any time you hear the phrase "Sustainable Development" used, you should substitute the term “socialism” to be able to understand what is intended. Later in this syllabus you will read the full text of the Earth Charter which was compiled under the direction of Mikhail Gorbachev and Maurice Strong. In that document you will find an emphasis on the same basic issues: control of reproduction, world governance, the importance of nature and the environment, and a new spirituality. The similarity between the ideas engraved on the Georgia Guidestones and those espoused in the Earth Charter reflect the common origins of both.

Yoko Ono, the widow of John Lennon, was recently quoted as referring to the American Stonehenge, saying:

“I want people to know about the stones ... We’re headed toward a world where we might blow ourselves up and maybe the globe will not exist ... it’s a nice time to reaffirm ourselves, knowing all the beautiful things that are in this country and the Georgia Stones symbolize that.” (1)

What is the true significance of the American Stonehenge, and why is its covert message important?

Because it confirms the fact that there was a covert group intent on

- (1) Dramatically reducing the population of the world.
- (2) Promoting environmentalism.
- (3) Establishing a world government.
- (4) Promoting a new spirituality.

Certainly the group that commissioned the Georgia Guidestones is one of many similar groups working together toward a New World Order, a new world economic system, and a new world spirituality. Behind those groups, however, are dark spiritual forces. Without understanding the nature of those dark forces it is impossible to understand the unfolding of world events.

The fact that most Americans have never heard of the Georgia Guidestones or their message to humanity reflects the degree of control that exists today over what the American people think. We ignore that message at our peril.

The Age of Reason was a book written by Thomas Paine. Its intent was to destroy the Judeo-Christian beliefs upon which our Republic was founded. [see opp.]

The hole that you see in the stone was drilled in the Center Stone so that the North Star could be visualized through it at any moment. This was one of several requirements stipulated by R. C. Christian for the building of the American Stonehenge and reflects his obsession with the alignment of the stars, the sun, and the moon. Occultists often worship the alignment and movement of heavenly bodies as part of their religious ceremonies.

An Analysis of

THE WORLD BANK* WATER POLICY

* (International Bank for Reconstruction and Development) which was originally set up to rebuild Europe after the devastation of World War II. Why does the World Bank have it's hands in everybody's business and personal life around the world?

Remember George Orwell's warning when reading any document: "You call read people's intentions by their use of foe language. If the words are so long and fuzzy that we cannot understand what is being said, or if we can surmise that they are saying nothing at all ... we can be fairly sure the speaker is trying to swindle us!"

Well folks. . . the international elitists are calling for what they say is a new approach to how they manage your water. In fact their plan calls for managing your water, your land, and you'

The WORLD BANK "claims" that their overall objective is to reduce poverty. Now that's very interesting. Why is the WORLD BANK involved in "social engineering" in fact all of the WORLD BANK programs are involved in redistribution of land resources and wealth! It would appear that the wonderful folks at the WORLD BANK are ignoring the truism...." Give a man a fish and feed him for a day . . . teach him how to fish and he will learn to feed himself " Of course if their real objective is to starve all of us, they're on the right tack to:

Land starvation, Resources starvation, and Wealth starvation !

Now, who does the WORLD BANK blame for all his poverty and starvation? Why, all the current governments of course. The WORLD BANK specifically points out the total mismanagement of water by all the governments. Explaining of course that the BANK is destined to be the savior of the water. . All the water . . .Everywhere!

The WORLD BANK will use "Estimated Opportunity Costs"* to set the price for water!

*The WORLD BANK defines EOC as "the value of goods or services forgone, including goods and services, when a scarce resource is used for one purpose instead of for its next best alternative use"

How's that for a mouthful of fuzzy words?

. . . Heed George Orwell's warning!

old saying is: "Figures don't lie but LIARS figure." i e. using half truths.)

The WORLD BANK "claims" that all the current governments have the following faults:

1. Misallocate and waste water.
[page 9]
2. Permit damage to the environment due to weak and distorted policies.
3. Neglect financial accountability.
4. Neglect user participation.
[Page27]
5. Charge too low a price for water. (They aren't charging for "Estimated Opportunity Costs.")
6. Ineffective delivery of water to users, especially the poor. [page 12]
7. Operate under centralized structure.

The WORLD BANK then makes the following proclamations:

1. Water is essential for life.
(Now here's a bold statement of the obvious!)
2. Water has an Economic Value and is recognized as an Economic Good. [Page 24]
3. Water is a scarce natural resource [page 21] (I believe the

So . . . get ready for all kind of "fees" regarding water . . .

Especially since the WORLD BANK will be Pertain to charge a "high enough", "proper" price for water. (And you thought Perrier was expensive!)

1. SOCIAL FEES: Those who have worked hard to better themselves will have to come up with subsidies for the poor. [pages 15, 72]

2. BENEFIT TAXES: If you receive any benefit whatsoever from your land, you will be taxed on that "benefit." [page 85]

3. POLLUTION CHARGES: You will be charged a pollution tax for any pollution on your land.

[The poop left by your pet on your land is going to cost you big time.]
[page 16]

The WORLD BANK wants to terminate (with extreme prejudice) the federal structure in all countries.
The WORLD BANK will not permit sovereign states within a "Federal Structure" to have any authority over the water. The WORLD BANK

plans to do this by replacing all country and state political boundaries with geographical RIVER BASINS BOUNDARIES [page 28, 71]

The WORLD BANK plan calls for the transfer by contract of all water jurisdiction by governments to Private Corporations and "User Associations" These corporations and user associations will of course be mandated to meet all WORLD BANK regulations and prohibitions.

[These "Private" entities will operate at the River Basin level. States will NOT have any control. Please note that a "river basin" includes all surface and underground water flowing into a common area. They simply march from the wetlands, up the river, up the streams, to the headwaters which are typically runoff or springs. This includes any water in the ground along the way, and any land which would allow water to run into the river basin "area". By the way, the WORLD BANK requires an environmental impact and assessment of the entire river basin system. The "river basin" organizations will be assisted by the Global Environmental Facility in collaboration with UNDP, the United Nations Development Program.] [page 14, 19]

These WORLD BANK contracts will comply with each country's national objectives which are of course the objectives of the WORLD BANK. The WORLD BANK "objectives" are stipulated in the water project loan agreements for country. The WORLD BANK water projects loans clearly spell out that "In acceptance of the monies of the WORLD BANK, the countries MUST participate in the international initiatives": i.e. United Nation's Conventions, Treaties! Agreements, and they ... [page 13]

MUST implement the WORLD BANK
policies on WATER and LAND USE! !

City to tax rainwater

By Jerome Christenson

Winona Daily News

Starting next year, rainwater will no longer be free in the city of Winona.

While it hasn't figured out how to tax air or sex, beginning in 2003 the Winona City Council will charge city property owners for the rain that falls on their land.

[A Recent email:]

As part of the 2003 budget process, the council gave tentative approval to the creation of a $200,000 stormwater fund. The money will be generated by a charge, similar to water and sewer charges, billed to owners of property that drains into the city storm sewer system.

The stormwater fund was discussed by council and staff Monday night.

The new city fee comes compliments of the federal government, according to city manager Eric Sorensen. As part of an effort to control nonpoint source water pollution from runoff, the federal government is looking at putting water- quality standards on the discharge from city storm sewers. Runoff from lawns, streets and parking lots can carry a wide range of contaminants, including dog droppings, lawn chemicals, fertilizers, gasoline, oil and an assortment of litter.

Public works director Keith Nelson said that while the regulations haven't been formulated yet, one thing is safe to assume:

"It's going to cost money."

Establishing a stormwater fund at this time offers the city a degree of protection from the financial shocks that are likely to result from federal actions.

Nelson said fees will be based on a complex formula that factors in roof areas, paved surfaces, lawns, wooded areas, agricultural land and other features in determining how much water runs off to be collected by city storm sewers. A piece of property that is virtually covered by a building and paved parking lot would pay at a higher rate than a parcel the same size that was largely lawn, garden or woodland.

As very preliminary, non-specific estimates, Nelson suggested that:

A 1/3 acre residential lot in an R2 zone might be assessed about* $14.15 a year or $3.54 per utility bill.

A half-acre lot, zoned R1, might be assessed $15.92 a year or $3.98 on each utility bill.*

"It's just like using city water or the sanitary sewer,"

Nelson said.

Councilman Dieter Mielimonka said when the charge is billed there should be a note added to every bill

"This charge due to a federal mandate."

What Do Executive Orders Say About Storing?

Updated 12 November 1998 USA...EXTRACT: of above article .

Australia.

"...right now in Ballarat [vic.], three things have come to light recently:

1. If rain becomes scarce again, there is legislation waiting to be signed which will put usage taps on private water bores on private property. Again this is pending legislation since rain has not become critical in Ballarat - yet. Legislators are hesitant to pass this bill as it will be met with much resistance from the farming community, but it's in the wings.

2. Water bores on private property must be registered with the shire and aerial photos are taken of all bores and dam reservoirs.

3. This last piece of interesting news was shared by our neighbor who has lived in Ballarat for decades. It should be the least popular measure so far. If another drought came to this area, private water tanks will be metered and taxed for usage! It's a good thing it wasn't fly season as hearing this made my jaw hit the pavement. The alternate plan, equally unpalatable, is to assess current rainfall levels and tax the owner by the size his tank(s).

What I think of this is not printable on the Net. Here we've purchased the property, the tanks themselves and paid for installation of same and filled them with FREE rainwater for which we may be taxed for our prudence. This is truly amazing ... "
